9:30 am to 12.30pm

UISG, Rome
Lungotevere Tor di Nona, 7

Who cares for the caregivers?

A reflection for Sisters who work in demanding contexts and for those who accompany them

Speaker

Maryanne Loughry, rsm

Maryanne Loughry is a Sister of Mercy and has been associated with JRS (Jesuit Refugee Service) since 1986, working as a psychologist and trainer in Indochinese refugee camps, in the Philippines and Vietnamese Detention Centres in Hong Kong.

She has conducted research, programme evaluations and humanitarian training in the Middle East, Africa, the Balkans, South East Asia and the UK.

She is currently researching the psychosocial effects of climate-induced displacement in the Pacific. Maryanne was made a Member (AM) of the Order of Australia in 2010 for her service to refugees. She teaches in the School of Social Work at Boston College.

The conference will be in English. Italian translation will be provided
